Vision Hospitality Group's newest Hilton Garden Inn features state-of-the-art meeting facility

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 1, 2005 – Vision Hospitality Group, Inc. announces the grand opening of their 114-room Hilton Garden Inn Atlanta NW/Kennesaw Towncenter located at 895 Cobb Place Boulevard, Kennesaw, Georgia. This is the third Hilton Garden Inn within Vision Hospitality Group's portfolio of hotels. The other two hotels are located in Chattanooga, Tenn. Vision Hospitality Group owns and manages the 5-story hotel, which features 3,570-square-feet of meeting space to accommodate business and special occasion needs.

"Our newest hotel takes quality accommodations to the next level," says Mitch Patel, President and COO of Vision Hospitality Group, Inc. "We set the bar extremely high for this hotel in order to exceed our guests' expectations."

"Hilton is excited to expand our already strong relationship with Vision Hospitality Group with their opening of the newest Hilton Garden Inn in Kennesaw, Georgia," says Steve Crabill, Vice President of Franchise Development for Hilton Hotels Corporation. "Quality owner/ operators such as Mitch Patel have been the basis of the amazing success of the award-winning Hilton Garden Inn brand. Congratulations to Mitch and his entire team."

The Hilton Garden Inn Kennesaw was designed with both today's business and leisure traveler in mind. In addition to the 105 well-appointed guestrooms and 9 suites, the hotel features two large meeting halls that accommodate up to 300 people.

"Close attention was paid to the meeting facility portion of this project as we knew this community was in need of this type of facility," says Patel. "Kennesaw and Marietta residents now have a new state-of-the-art facility that can be used for a variety of functions such as weddings, conferences, and banquets."
